Please Note: All students are required to be regular, active members of a local church congregation. Service in a local church is an invaluable part of the training program at RBTCZ. It is recommended that each student be actively involved in the helps ministry of their local churches. While we require this, we cannot enforce it. Your help in the development of this student as a minister through overseeing his or her work is important, complimenting and reinforcing his or her class-room teaching, helping that instruction to be practical and not just theory.
